EEL NET FISHING IN TIDAL WATERS

SECTION 25(1) OF THE SALMON AND FRESHWATER FISHERIES ACT 1975

The Environment Agency Byelaws supporting a consistent, national system of eel licensing were confirmed by Ministers on 19 December 2004. These Byelaws included the removal of section (c) of Anglian Region Byelaw 9, which listed certain tidal waters that were excluded from the provisions of the eel net fishing licensing system under an excusal granted in 1981. To apply consistency across the whole of its area, the Environment Agency requested the revocation of this excusal. The Anglian Region eel excusal was revoked on 14 February 2005.

The effect of this revocation is to require all persons fishing for eels by any method other than rod and line in any part of the Environment Agency area to hold a valid licence. This area includes all inland, tidal and marine waters out to the six-mile limit. This does not affect the excusal from holding a licence to fish for eels by rod and line seaward of certain demarcation points granted in 1996.

For further details on eel fishing contact Environment Agency, FAST, Richard Fairclough House, Knutsford Road, Warrington WA4 1HG.
