

- Professor Graham Lytton FURNISS, F.B.A., Professor of African Language Literature, School of Oriental and African Studies. For services to Higher Education and Scholarship.
- Maureen Ellen, Mrs. GARVIE, lately Principal Estates Surveyor, Scottish Government. For services to Government Property Management.
- Pauline, Mrs. GAVIN, Headteacher, St. Bartholomews Church of England Primary School, Leeds. For services to Education.
- Anne Patricia, Mrs. BULL-GEORGE, Headteacher, Weston All Saints Church of England Primary School, Somerset. For services to Education.
- John GILHOOLY, Director, Wigmore Hall. For services to Music.
- Stephen Hugh GLASS, Grade 6, Ministry of Defence. For services to Defence Equipment Acquisition.
- Alan GLENNIE, Deputy Departmental Records Officer, Cabinet Office. For services to the Cabinet Office and Public Records Management.
- Pamela Jill, Mrs. GOLDBERG. For charitable and public service through the Breast Cancer Campaign and the General Advisory Committee on Science.
- David Michael GORDON, Head of Major Events, BBC Sport. For services to Broadcasting and the London 2012 Olympic Games.
- Laurence GRAFF, Founder, Graff Diamonds. For services to the Jewellery Industry.
- Alexandra, Mrs. GRAY, Nurse Consultant, Scottish National Blood Transfusion Service. For services to Blood Transfusion.
- Professor Selwyn Michael GRIFFIN, Consultant Surgeon and Professor of Gastrointestinal Surgery, The Royal Victoria Infirmary, Newcastle upon Tyne. For services to Health.
- Elliot GRIFFITHS, J.P., lately Magistrate, West Glamorgan. For services to the Administration of Justice.
- Stephen John GRIX, Principal, MidKent College. For services to Further Education.
- Gareth GWENLAN, Producer and Director. For services to Broadcasting.
- Eunice Julie, Mrs. HALLIDAY, Project Co-ordinator, Plymouth Methodist Mission Circuit. For services to the community in Plymouth.
- Leonard Thomas HATTON, Chairman and President, SportsAid. For services to Sport.
- Anthony James HEATON, Chief Executive, Shape Arts. For services to the Arts and the Disability Arts Movement.
- Patrick Kurk HEISEL, Head of Bureaucracy Reduction for Schools, Department for Education. For public service to Education and Diversity and voluntary service through the Special Constabulary.
- Dr. Josephine HOCKLEY, Nurse Consultant, St. Christopher's Hospice. For services to Palliative Care Nursing.
- Janet, Mrs. HODGES, J.P., Chief Executive Officer, The Edge Foundation. For services to Further and Higher Education.
- Miss Tina HOLMES. Ministry of Defence. For service to Defence.
- Ms Mandy Johnston HOPE, Grade 7, Ministry of Defence. For public service, especially in support of the London 2012 Olympic and Paralympic Games.
- Christian Edward Johnston HORNER, Team Principal, Red Bull F1 Team. For services to Motorsport.
- Professor James HOUGH, F.R.S., F.R.S.E., Chief Executive, Scottish Universities Physics Alliance and Research Professor in Natural Philosophy, University of Glasgow. For services to Science.
- Sharron, Mrs. HUGHES, Head of Learning and Development Operations, Crown Prosecution Service. For services to Law and Order particularly in Learning and Development.
- David HUTCHISON, Chief Executive Officer, Social Finance. For services to Finance.
- David IRELAND, Chief Executive, Empty Homes. For services to Housing.
- Albert Henry Thomas IRVIN, Artist. For services to the Visual Arts.
- Andrew Stephen Vallance JONES, lately First Secretary (Migration), British Embassy, Kabul. For services to International Migration Operations.
- Doiran JONES, J.P., lately Chair, Melin Homes Ltd. For services to Housing in South Wales.
- Dylan JONES, Editor, GQ. For services to the Publishing and British Fashion Industry.
- Ms Teresa KELLY, Principal, Abingdon and Witney College. For services to Further Education and Young People with Learning Difficulties and Disabilities.
- Michael Johnathan KENT, Chief Executive Officer, Bromford Housing Group. For services to Social Housing.
- Professor Janice Mary KIRKPATRICK, Co-Founder, Graven Images. For services to Graphic Design.
- James Scott LAMBERT, Executive Chairman and CEO, R&R Ice Cream. For services to Manufacturing in North Yorkshire.
- Paul LAWRIE, M.B.E, Golfer and Founder, the Paul Lawrie Foundation. For voluntary service to Golf.
- Professor Malcolm LEWIS, Sub-Dean and Director of General Practice Education, Wales Deanery, Cardiff University. For services to Medical Education.
- Sylvia, Mrs. LIBSON, Executive Headteacher, Furness Primary and Oakington Manor Primary Schools, Brent. For services to Education.
- Gaye, Mrs. LINKLATER, lately Headteacher, Hermitage Park Primary School, Edinburgh. For services to Education.
- Dr. Janet Mary LITTLE, Consultant, Public Health. For services to Healthcare in Northern Ireland.
- Robert Alan LLOYD, lately Councillor, Swansea Council. For services to Local Government and Democracy in Wales and Abroad.
- Alan William MABBUTT, Head of Local Government, Conservative Campaign Headquarters. For services to Local Government and Political Engagement.
- David MACLEOD. For services to Employee Engagement and Business.
- Kenneth MACLEOD, Chairman, Stena Line (UK) Ltd. For services to the Shipping Industry and Charity.
- Dr. Richard John MANTLE, D.L., General Director, Opera North. For services to Music.
- Ms Marie MARIN, Chief Executive Officer, Employers Childcare Charitable Group. For services to Social Enterprise.
- David Andrew MARTIN, Designer, Interactive SmartBoard and Executive Chairman, SMART Technologies Inc. For services to Education.