

- Peter HUGGINS, Associate Director, Dance City. For services to British Dance.
- Paul Alexander HUGHES, lately Teacher, Queensbury Upper School, Bedfordshire. For services to Education.
- Miss Heather Lamont HUMBY. For services to the community in Sandown, Isle of Wight.
- Christine Margaret, Mrs. HUNT, Director, Findhorn Village Centre. For services to the community in Findhorn, Morayshire.
- Ronald Philip Dudley HUNT, Chief Clerk, Government and Opposition Whips Office. For parliamentary and political service.
- Ian Michael Alwyn Blake HURST. For services to Mountain Rescue in Derbyshire.
- Dr. Jana Elizabeth HUTT, Chair, Knockando Wool Mill Trust. For services to the Economy in Speyside.
- Judith Susan, Mrs. IRONSIDE, Founder and Executive Director, UK Jewish Film. For services to Drama.
- Dr. Brian IRVING, Manager, Solway Coast Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. For services to Natural Heritage and Conservation in Cumbria.
- Thelma, Mrs. JACKSON. For services to the communities in Prestbury, Macclesfield and East Cheshire.
- Christopher JAEGER, Founder and Chief Executive, Worcester Live. For services to the Arts in Worcestershire.
- Martin JAMES, Higher Executive Officer, Operations, Department for Work and Pensions. For services to Jobseekers and voluntary service to Gloucestershire Army Cadets.
- Ruth Edith, Mrs. JAMES, Founder, Aim for Change. For services to Sustainable Development in Uganda and Pakistan.
- Adam JAMIESON, Ministry of Defence. For services to Defence.
- Ian JOHNSON, Higher Executive Officer, Corporate IT, Department for Work and Pensions. For services to the DWP and the Scout Association in Durham.
- Dr. Jeremy Richard JOHNSON, lately Medical Director, Severn Hospice, Shropshire. For services to Palliative Medicine.
- Major William Alan JOHNSTON, T.D. For voluntary service to SSAFA in Aberdeenshire.
- Aled JONES. For services to Music and Broadcasting and for charitable services.
- David JONES, Anti-Kidnap and Extortion Unit, Serious and Organised Crime Agency. For services to Law and Order.
- Gareth Barrington Owen Rees JONES, Programme Manager, International Government Defence and Support Services, KBR. For services to the Armed Forces.
- Kathleen Mary, Mrs. JONES, Headteacher, St. Mary's Catholic Primary School, Wrexham. For services to Education in Wales.
- Margretta Lynnette, Mrs. JONES, Headteacher, Llangors Church in Wales Primary School. For services to Education.
- Peter Richard JONES, Sergeant, Ministry of Defence Police. For public service, especially in support of the London 2012 Olympic and Paralympic Games.
- Graham Dawson JONES. For services to School Rugby in Torfaen, South East Wales.
- Parminder, Mrs. KAUR, Union Learning Representative, Heathrow Worldwide Distribution Centre, Royal Mail. For services to Adult Education.
- Basir Sultan KAZMI, Poet. For services to Literature.
- Ms Joanne Hope KEOGH, Police Staff, Metropolitan Police Service, Kingston upon Thames. For services to Victims of Domestic Violence.
- Lynn, Mrs. KERFOOT, Managing Director, Newland Engineering Company Ltd. For services to Business in Tameside.
- Ian James KERR, Retired Police Officer. For services to Motorcycle Safety.
- Miss Denise Marie KERSHAW, Detective Constable, Lancashire Constabulary. For services to Public Protection.
- Ayub KHAN, Head of Library and Information Services, Warwickshire County Council. For services to Libraries in Warwickshire.
- Wasim Gulzar KHAN, Director of Operations, The Cricket Foundation and Leader, Chance To Shine. For services to Cricket and the community.
- Rosie Phyllis, Mrs. KILBY. For voluntary service to the community in Huntingdon, Cambridgeshire.
- David James KING, Retained Firefighter, South Wales Fire and Rescue Service. For charitable services and for services to the community in Porthcawl, Bridgend.
- Roderick Arthur Charles KING, Road Safety Campaigner. For services to Road Safety.
- Katherine, Mrs. KIRK, Chair, South East Essex Primary Care Trust. For services to Public Health.
- Linda Jean, Mrs KIRK, Volunteer and lately Regional Chairman, the Conservative Party. For public and political service.
- Colin KIRKBY. For services to the Environment and to the community in Powys.
- Stephen LAMB, Police Inspector, Humberside Police. For services to Policing and charitable Fundraising.
- Michael Ian LARKING, Senior Executive Officer, Fire Safety Division, Department for Communities and Local Government. For services to Fire Awareness and Prevention.
- Peter LATHAM, lately PE Teacher, Otley, West Yorkshire. For services to Education and Sport.
- Brian LAWLESS, Chair of Governors, Northcote Primary School, Liverpool. For services to Education.
- Miss Margaret LAWSON, Rural Community Transport Officer, Badenoch and Strathspey Community Transport Company. For services to the community in Badenoch and Strathspey.
- Caroline Eliza Georgina, Mrs. DALE-LEECH, Honorary Secretary, the Carriage Foundation and Owner, Red House Stables Working Carriage Museum. For services to Heritage and to the community in the Peak District.
- Anthony David LEMONS, Director of Physical Education, University of Cambridge. For services to University Sport.
- Deirdre, Mrs. LENNOX, Senior Nurse Manager, Spruce House, Altnagelvin Hospital, Londonderry. For voluntary and charitable services in Northern Ireland.
- Drummond Donald Alasdair LESLIE, lately Member of Council, Institute of Education, University of London. For services to Higher Education.