Published by Authority.

From Tuesday January 27. to Saturday January 31. 1735.

From his Royal Highness's Council Chamber at Somerset House, the 27th Day of January 1735.

THIS Day his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales was pleased to appoint Ferdinando Wallis, of Shevioc, in the County of Cornwall, Esq; to be Sheriff of the said County.

Hague, Feb. 7, N. S. Some Days ago Complaints came from the States of Guelderland, that certain Prussian Officers had a new by Force lifted and carried off some Men from that Province: Upon which Complaints the States General first sent for an exact Information of the Matters of Fact, which having been transmitted to them, their High Mightinesses passed a Resolution on the 5th Instant, to order M. de Ginkel, their Minister at the Court of Berlin, to complain of this violent Proceeding towards their Subjects, and to demand Satisfaction. Which Resolution, together with the said Information, was dispatched to him this Morning, and likewise delivered to M. Luiscius, the Prussian Minister here. The States of Holland separated on Saturday last, after having settled some Matters relating to the Diques of Gorcom and Schoonhoven, to prevent the frequent Inundations there. Count Uhlefeld returned hither from Brussels on Friday Night last, and is preparing to give a splendid Dinner to all the Publick Ministers and other Persons of Consideration on Monday next, on Occasion of the Marriage between the Archdutchess and the Duke of Lorrain.

Whitehall, January 31.

The King has been pleased to constitute and appoint George Earl of Orkney, and his Grace John Duke of Argyll and Greenwich, to be Field Marshals of all and singular his Majesty's Forces, as well Horse as Foot, employed or to be employed in His Service.

The King having conferred the Honour of Knighthood on Thomas Reeve, Esq; one of the Judges of his Majesty's Court of Common Pleas, has been pleased to appoint him Lord Chief Justice of his Majesty's said Court, in the Room of Sir Robert Eyre, Knight, deceased.

Whitehall, Jan. 16, 1735-6.

Whereas an anonymous Letter was found in the House of William Stockdale at Scarborough, in Yorkshire, on the 25th of December last, directed to Squire Osberton, at his Lodgings in Scarborough, supposed to be intended for William Osbaldeston, Esq; requiring Twenty Pounds to be laid in a certain Place, in the said Letter mentioned, and threatening, in Case of Refusal, to set Fire to his House, and do other Mischief to his Estate: His Majesty, in order to discover the Person or Persons concerned in writing or sending the said Letter, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to them, or any of them, (except the Person who wrote it)

it) so as they, or any of them, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a further Encouragement, the said William Osbaldeston, Esq; hereby promises a Reward of Fifty Pounds to the Person or Persons making such Discovery, upon the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.
W. Osbaldeston.

Whitehall, Jan. 12, 1735-6.

Whereas Rodolph White, late of Craven Buildings near Drury-lane, Merchant, is charged with having forged several Indorsements in the Name of Thomas Wyndham, Esq; on several promissory Notes, drawn by the said Rodolph White for considerable Sums of Money, and has since absconded and fled: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the said Rodolph White, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any Person or Persons concerned therein, who shall discover the said Rodolph White, so as that he may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a further Encouragement to such Discovery, the said Thomas Wyndham doth hereby promise a Reward of Fifty Guineas to any Person or Persons who shall apprehend the said Rodolph White, so as that he be brought to Justice; to be paid immediately after his Conviction.
Tho. Wyndham.

The Meeting of the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners for inquiring into the Officers of the Courts of Justice in England and Wales, their Service and Fees, which was appointed for Saturday the 31st of this Instant January, at Five o'Clock in the Evening, at the Cockpit, Whitehall, is adjourn'd to a further Day, on account of the Funeral of the late Duke of Buckingham.
