The three following Adresss having been transmitted to the Right Honourable the Earl of Holderness, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Adresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Adresss of the Nobility, Freeholders, Justices of Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and of the Ministers of the Gospel in the Shire of Ayr.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, thoroughly sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Government; Blessings which our Predecessors in this Country, before the glorious Revolution, often exposed their Lives and Fortunes to obtain, beg Leave, with all Humility, to offer our Congratulations on the late Success of your Majesty's Arms, both by Land and by Sea; which has had the happy Effect to free our Fellow-Subjects in your Majesty's Electoral Dominions, and in America, from those Devastations and Ravages which a merciless Enemy had projected.
